

www.membranecourse.com

BROUGHT TO YOU BY:

Dairy
FOODS

Filtration &
Membrane
World LLC

An Exclusive Invitation From

GEA

Just For You!

June 9-11, 2010

Minneapolis Airport Marriott
Bloomington, MN

Learn from Experts in the Field and Enhance your Knowledge in Dairy, Fluid Milk, Beverage and Cheese Industries.

The Practical Membrane Technology Short Course is a two-day course, organized jointly with Filtration and Membrane World and Dairy Foods Magazine. Bringing together plant engineers, scientists, chemists, and technicians this event will provide updates on new technologies and applications in food processing industries focusing on dairy, fluid milk, beverages and cheese.

WHY ATTEND?

- Work On Practical Problems With Industry Experts And Develop Solutions For Real Case Studies
- Review Market And Membrane Technologies Before You Invest in a New Membrane System
- Eliminate Common Mistakes That Can Cost You $$$
- Tap Into Energy Saving Technologies
- Network With Industry Experts And Your Peers

JOIN US!

The Practical Membrane Technology Short Course offers must-have education and vital networking opportunities. Be a leader in your industry by attending the the Practical Membrane Technology Short Course on June 9-11, 2010 in Bloomington, MN.

Register Today!

As a speaker of this conference we would like to invite you to attend. And, as our special guest, you will receive 25% off your registration fee.

Simply enter discount code "GEAvip" when registering online at www.membranecourse.com to receive your discounted registration.

www.membranecourse.com